Accessibility

Please note that both The Golden Square and St Paul's Square are accessible to wheelchair users but other venues may not be. Please contact the organisers directly for more information. This guide is also available to view online at www.jewelleryquarter.net/jq-festival. Please note that this schedule is subject to change. Any changes to the programme will be posted on the official Festival website: www.jewelleryquarter.net/jq-festival

Three fantastic venues are ready to welcome you over the course of the day. We hope that you manage to visit them all!

St Paul's Square (Page 5)

After its hugely successful debut in 2019, the music festival at St Paul's Square returns and will take place throughout the afternoon and into the early evening. Celebrating with a special outdoor event within the picturesque St Paul's Square with a whole host of bands playing live music, accompanied by local food and drink from around the Square.

Golden Square (Page 6 - 9)

Meet artisans, makers, and creators from across Birmingham in the JQ's first handmade market. There will also be food and drink hatches on the Square.

Jewellery Quarter Cemeteries (Page 10 -11)

Come visit the restored Warstone Lane Cemetery and enjoy live theatre amongst the catacombs in one of Birmingham's most unique settings. Tours of the incredible surroundings will also be on offer with entertainment and workshops throughout the day.

Around the Quarter (Page 12 - 14)

Take part in a variety of guided and self-guided tours covering heritage, drinks trails, and museums.

ST. PAUL'S SQUARE

St. Paul's Square, B3 1QZ

St Paul's Square is Birmingham's last remaining Georgian Square, with the stunning Grade 1 listed St Paul's Church at its heart. On Saturday afternoon, the Square will come alive with live music on stage brought to you by the legendary Jam House, with food and drink supplied by the local venues.

BRYAN CORBETT and friends

Renowned Birmingham based trumpet and flugelhorn player Bryan Corbett, will be playing live alongside saxophonist, Chris "BeeBe" Aldridge and other leading members from the Midland's jazz scene.

LUCAS D and the GROOVE GHETTO

This exciting six-piece brings a synthesis of jazz fusion, funk, and hip-hop to the festival - playing a cool range of acid jazz classics and jazz-funk favourites.

ELLE-J WALTERS

Multi-talented Elle-J Walters brings some of her all-time favourite songs to the Festival. Expect dance classics from the likes of Donna Summer, Chic & Ultra Nate.

REGGAE WINEHOUSE

"Back to Black", "Losing Game", "Valerie" and more - this nine-piece has three top vocalists and a fresh brass section bringing the hit songs of Amy Winehouse back to life "inna reggae style".

St. Paul's Summer Fête

DON'T MISS

St Paul's is at the heart of the JQ, and one of the three focal venues of this year's JQ Festival. You can come here to rest, meet friends, listen to music, and enjoy its calm and beauty. By giving money to our development project (the first phase is to make it watertight) you are helping with the renewal of this iconic, Grade I listed building.

Your gift is to the vital task of stopping water causing further deterioration to its historic fabric. With a new roof in place, the interior can be developed to make it a more comfortable venue for concerts and fit to serve the community.

Thank you for playing your part in raising £250,000 for your church's 250th birthday in 2029.

David Tomlinson.
Vicar.

St Paul's Church will be hosting St Paul's Summer Fete on Monday 29 August 11:30-18:00 to raise money for the Church restoration project as described above. #StPaulsFete
