Accessibility

Please note that both The Golden Square and St. Paul's Square are wheelchair accessible and there will also be accessible toilets available. Other venues which are wheelchair accessible have been marked with a ♿ (wheelchair) symbol in the programme, but if you have any other access needs or questions, please contact the organisers directly. This guide is also available to view online at jewelleryquarter.net/jq-festival.

Please note that this schedule is subject to change. Any changes to the programme will be posted on the official festival website: jewelleryquarter.net/jq-festival

These fantastic venues are ready to welcome you over the course of the day. We hope that you manage to visit them all!

St. Paul's Square (page 4-6)

The music festival at St. Paul's Square returns for the 4th time, taking place throughout the afternoon and into the early evening. Celebrating with a special outdoor event within the picturesque St. Paul's Square with a whole host of bands playing live music, accompanied by local food and drink from around the square. The monthly JQ Artisan Market will also be taking place on St. Paul's Square from 10am - 3pm, where you can shop with artisans, makers and creators from across Birmingham.

Golden Square (page 8-9)

Something new for 2024, we are taking over Golden Square with our craziest event yet - a Jewellery Quarter themed mini golf course! Each of the 9 holes is inspired by the local architecture, history and businesses for a truly unique playing experience. Fun for all ages, this activity is free to take part in, but at busy times you may need to wait for a turn. No need to watch the British Open, you can have your own tournament!

The Jointworks (page 13)

Birmingham Design and Friends will be hosting a market with over 20 local designers, illustrators and makers, plus free drop-in workshops. The Market is free entry and runs from 10am - 3pm.

Around the Quarter (page 14-21)

There's so much to see and do across the Quarter this year including the new dance hub on Vittoria Street, workshops at The Hive, building tours and showcases at the School of Jewellery, catacomb tours in the cemeteries, a music trail across the JQ with staff and students from Academy of Contemporary Music and lots of businesses putting on special events.

ST. PAUL'S SQUARE

St. Paul's Square, B3 1QZ
Live music 12pm - 7pm

LIVE MUSIC

12pm
til 7pm

St. Paul's Square is Birmingham's last remaining Georgian Square, with the stunning Grade I listed Church at its heart. The church will be open all day with guided tours every half hour. On Saturday afternoon, the Square will come alive with live music on stage brought to you by the legendary Jam House with food and drink supplied by the local venues.

BRYAN CORBETT & FRIENDS

Renowned Birmingham based trumpet and flugelhorn player Bryan Corbett opens the festival accompanied by some of the leading members of the Midlands Jazz scene, including Andre Basing (Keys), Andi Robertson (Bass), and Neil Bullock (Drums).

LOU WARREN BAND

Lou Warren's magnificent vocals have provided range and power to many well known UK Soul recordings over the past twenty years. Here she fronts her own band, bringing to life some of her favourite hits from the past two decades and featuring tracks from her recent project with Saxophonist Chris Bowden, The Hypnos Files.

DONNA SUMMER featuring ELLE-J WALTERS

The incredible vocal talents of Elle-J Walters celebrates the music of the "Queen of Disco" - one of the best-selling music artists of all time - Donna Summer! Elle-J performs many of Donna's 32 chart hits, including Hot Stuff, MacArthur Park, Bad Girls, Love to Love You Baby and I Feel Love.

Celebration of SINATRA

Critically acclaimed for his vocal finesse, charm and charisma, you can be excused for believing James McAllister really is the Chairman of the Board. The Edgar Macías Quintet presents a Celebration of Sinatra alongside Chris Bowden on flute and sax, Tom Hill on bass, Miles Levin on drums and of course, Edgar Macías on piano.

RED LEMONS

Originally the Red Lemons Electric Blues Band, this Birmingham band have been part of the local scene since the mid-eighties, enjoying UK chart success. For the JQ Festival, this band of superbly accomplished and very individual musicians come together to perform a vast range of Soul & Funk favourites from the likes of Aretha Franklin, The Temptations, and Stevie Wonder to Alicia Keys, Duffy and Plan B.

LATINMOTION

LatinMotion has been part of the Jam House regular Salsa evenings for the best part of twenty years. Today, they bring their dance workshop display to the Festival, playing a mix of Salsa, Merengue, Tango, Compas, Bossa Nova and Bachata before introducing...

BUENA VISTA SOCIAL CLUB

This delight is Edgar Macías Latin Jazz Quintet's take on the BUENA VISTA SOCIAL CLUB album. Described as one of the landmark recordings of the 20th century, this Grammy-winning production, released in 1996, has sold over 8 million copies, out-selling any other record from the Latin genre.

GABBIDON

The incredibly talented Basil Gabbidon was the founding member and lead guitarist of the renowned STEEL PULSE, writing and performing many of their hits. Today, Basil brings some of the greatest Reggae anthems known to mankind with an acoustic line-up from his band.

BLACK JEANS

The Black Jeans are the final band of the afternoon and will rock the Festival crowd. This energetic three piece play a collection of the most iconic anthems of the last few decades with a vast repertoire including songs from Rag N Bone Man, Justin Timberlake, The Black Eyed Peas, Arctic Monkeys and The Killers.

Getting Here

By Train/Tram: The Jewellery Quarter has a dedicated train station (JEQ) and two tram stops (St. Paul's and Jewellery Quarter). Hop on the tram for £1.50.

By Car: From north-west/north-east take the M6 or M1. From the south/south-east take the M40 or M5. Download the RingGo app to pay for on-street parking or park in the Vyse St. Multistorey Car Park to use cash.

On Foot: It is a 20 min walk from Birmingham city centre.

By Bus: The Quarter is accessible from the city centre via the 8A, 8C & 101 (Warstone Lane Stop) and 16, 74 and 75 (Great Hampton St. Stop).

Hotels: Looking to stay over and make the most of your weekend? Check our website for local hotel listings.

JEWELLERY QUARTER BID

The JQBID is funded by the local businesses and provides a welcoming environment for visitors; keeps the streets clean and safe and invests in projects to improve the local area.
